

HAWAII FOODBANK ANNOUNCES NEW PROMOTIONS

HONOLULU (August 29, 2018) – Hawaii Foodbank is proud to announce the promotion of Beverly Santos to Director of Food Drive & Special Events and Marielle Terbio to Director of Community Engagement & Advocacy.

“Hawaii Foodbank is thankful to have such wonderful, compassionate and inspiring staff members such as Beverly and Marielle,” said Ron Mizutani, President and CEO of Hawaii Foodbank. “Their dedication to our organization and our mission is clearly demonstrated through their compassion, strong leadership and willingness to ensure that no family goes unfed.”

Beverly Santos was promoted from Special Events Manager to Director of Food Drive & Events. Her responsibilities include planning and overseeing all aspects of the Foodbank’s food/ fund drives and special events. Santos’ duties also include maintaining strong relationships with board members and community committees, implementing strategies to successfully meet annual fundraising goals and continued development of Hawaii Foodbank’s individual and corporate donors.

Marielle Terbio was promoted from Community Engagement Manager to Director of Community Engagement & Advocacy. Her responsibilities include developing, implementing and managing Hawaii Foodbank’s vast advocacy program to raise awareness surrounding the issue of food insecurity in Hawaii. Terbio’s duties also include effectively collaborating with individual partners and organizations, orientation and supervision of volunteers and advocating for legislative initiatives that support the Foodbank’s mission.

About the Hawaii Foodbank
