

UH FOOTBALL VICTORY DONATION CAMPAIGN GENERATES $25,200 IN DONATIONS TO HAWAII FOODBANK

HONOLULU (December 20, 2018) – Earlier this fall, Landmark Logistics committed to donating $1,000 to Hawaii Foodbank for every game won by University of Hawaii’s football team, sparking interest in other local businesses to join the fight against hunger while supporting local sports.

“When the UH football team first went 2-0, Hawaii was experiencing various natural disasters, leaving many residents in need of food and emergency supplies,” said Corey Correa, President and Executive Chairman of Landmark Logistics. “After seeing news headlines stating that Hawaii Foodbank was running low on supplies, I thought this would be a great opportunity for Landmark Logistics to rally behind our local athletes while also raising food and monetary donations for community members in need. We are a proud partner of the Hawaii Foodbank and we are absolutely amazed with the amount of local businesses who joined our campaign in the fight against hunger.”

In celebration of the Rainbow Warriors’ impressive 8-5 record season and conclusion of the UH Football Victory Donation Campaign, various businesses presented Hawaii Foodbank with a check for $25,200 in total donations on Thursday, December 20, 2018. Hawaii Foodbank received the following donations from various local businesses:

- $10,000 from Landmark Logistics Corporation (Committed to minimum donation of $10,000)
- $8,000 from Pasha Hawaii ($1,000 per victory)
- $4,000 from MIRA Construction ($500 per victory)
- $1,600 from Defend Hawaii ($200 per victory)
- $800 from Drew Santos ($100 per victory)
- $800 from Kawika’s Painting ($100 per victory)

“Hawaii Foodbank is deeply touched by the support we’ve received from local businesses and we congratulate Coach Rolovich and the UH Rainbow Warriors on their exciting victories this football season,” said Ron Mizutani, CEO of Hawaii Foodbank. “Like our Rainbow Warriors, these businesses came together as a team and their commitment to serving hungry residents across our state is truly an inspiration to us all.”
