SFMNP RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Your Rights

As an applicant/participant of SFMNP you have the following rights to:

- Be treated with dignity, respect, and without discrimination.
- Be notified in writing, within 15 days of applying, if you are not determined eligible.
- Appeal an ineligibility decision if you feel that determination was made in error.
- Have information you provided kept private unless you request for it to be shared.
- Make a complaint if you feel you have not been treated fairly.
- Have clear directions of how and where to use the coupons you receive.
- Learn about other services that may be available to you. You may contact your local agency for services in your area.
- File a complaint with your local agency about improper farmer or farmers' market program practices.

Your Responsibilities

As an applicant/participant of SFMNP you have the following responsibilities:

- Provide correct information, to the best of your knowledge, to determine eligibility.
- Understand that giving false information and/or intentionally concealing facts could result in your paying back benefits or legal action.
- Understand that attempting to collect benefits more than once or at multiple distribution sites during a season will result in termination from the program.
- Consume the fresh produce obtained through this program yourself.
- Safeguard the coupons you receive. Please report to your local agency if they are lost or stolen. Lost or stolen coupons will not be replaced.
- Redeem your coupons with an authorized outlet by September 30, 2019.
- Understand that funding is limited for this program and on a first come, first served basis, subject to the availability of funding.

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English. To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint\_filing\_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form.

To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992.
