HUNGER IN HAWAII

The Hawaii Foodbank provides food through member agencies to 183,500 different people each year, or over 14% of the population of Hawaii.

- 55,050 are children
- 11,010 are over the age of 65

In fiscal year 2011 the Hawaii Foodbank distributed:

- Over 11.8 million pounds of food
- Including 3 million pounds of fresh produce

Your support helps feed Hawaii's:

- Children
- The Elderly
- Low-income Families
- The Homeless
- The Disabled
- The Temporarily Unemployed
- Those Experiencing Sudden Emergencies

Your support of the 7th Annual Hawaii Foodbank Golf Classic:

- Provided over $43,000 for Foodbank feeding programs
- Helped distribute food for over 107,000 meals!

Foodbank Facts

- Nonprofit 501(c)(3) agency that has been feeding the hungry in Hawaii for 28 years
- Distributes food to nearly 250 member agencies on Oahu and Kauai
- Distributes an average of 991,277 pounds of food each month

Your support of the Hawaii Foodbank helps feed these people today and give them hope for a better future tomorrow. Mahalo for your generous and continued support.
