

23rd Annual Hawaii Foodbank Food Drive

Goals of the Hawaii Foodbank Annual Food Drive

The purposes of the Annual Food Drive are simple: to raise awareness about hunger in Hawaii and to collect urgently needed canned goods and monetary donations to help feed hungry islanders. The Top 5 Most Wanted items are: canned meats / tuna, canned meals, canned soups, canned vegetables and canned fruits. This year, we are striving to collect One Million Meals worth of food and funds.

2012 Food Drive Day Facts

Our official Food Drive Day is Saturday, April 21, 2012. Thousands of volunteers will collect food and fishnet for dollars at sites around the island, while raising awareness about hunger in Hawaii. Donations can be dropped off between 8 a.m. – 3 p.m. at these sites:

- Koko Marina Center
- McCully Shopping Center
- Pearl City Shopping Center
- Pearl Highlands Center
- Town Center of Mililani
- Waianae Mall Shopping Center and other Waianae sites (check website)
- Waikeola Congregational Church – Kahala
- Waterfront Plaza
- Windward City Shopping Center

In addition, participating military commissaries will be collecting on weekends throughout March and April. Check the Hawaii Foodbank website Military Coalition page for details.
